Eleventh Annual Edition

☆

Edited and Published by Staff Members From the Year's Graduating Classes

Advisers:

LYDIA GOOS, Art

CARL G. MILLER, Editorial and Business

Dear Bill
you really like the Tiger here are the classes of the beginning of the term of March Love

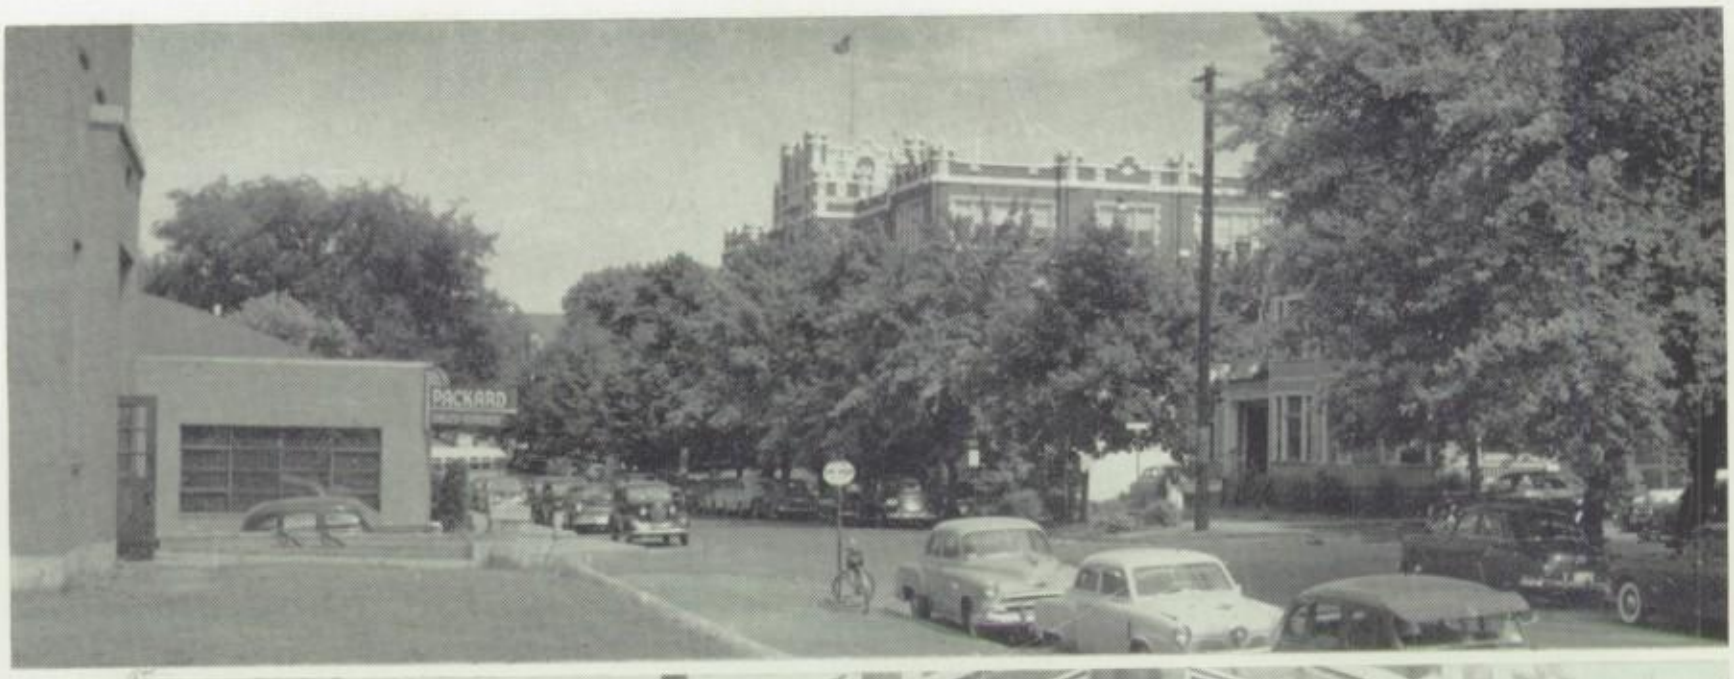
Dear Tiger reader:

We want you to understand how the 1953 book is put together.

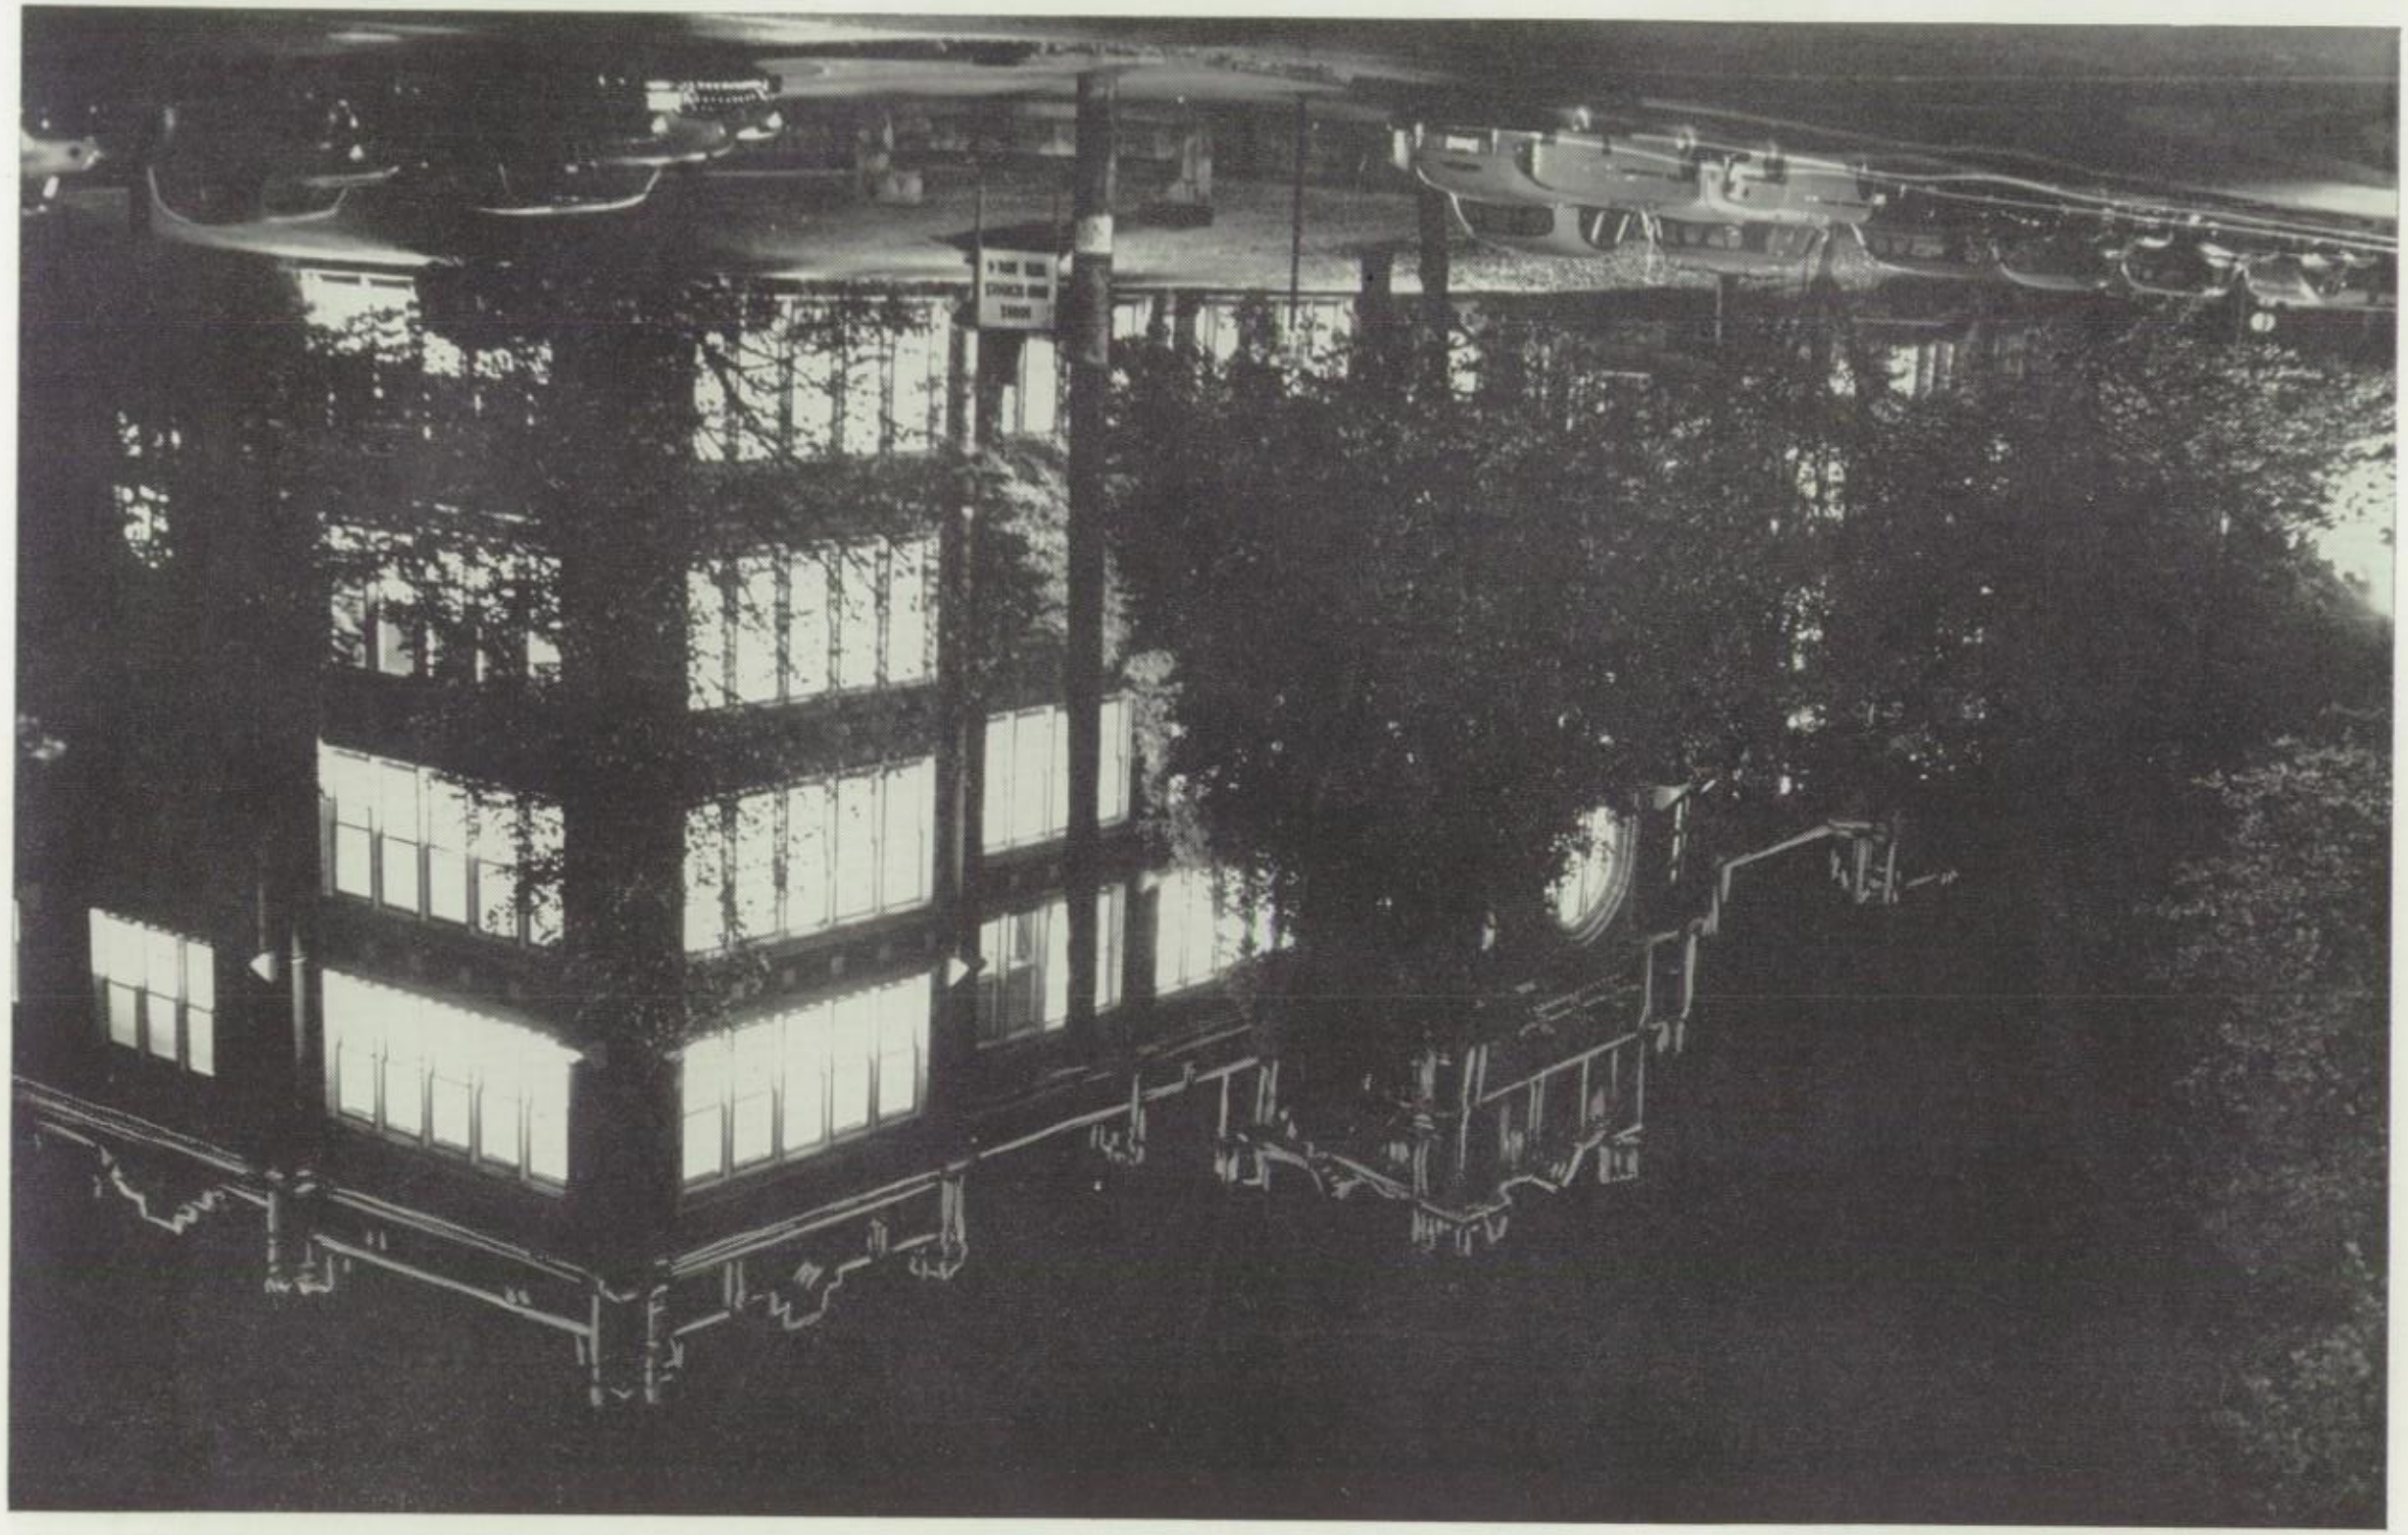
For a change, we thought you'd like the diary form, which is a natural way to record a year's events.

As you read the book, then, keep this in mind. In a sense, it's the diary of Lewis and Clark for as much of the year as the staff can record in a practical way.

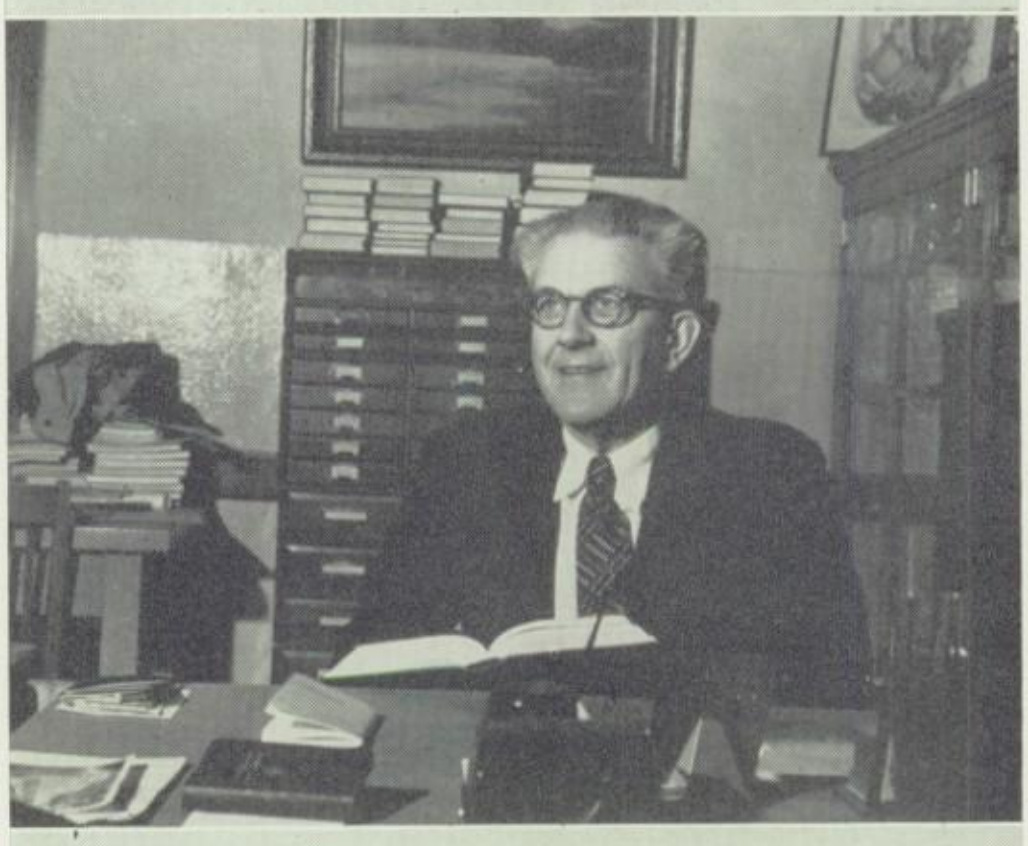
The Editors.



PACKARD



Administration



September 3—Headed again by Principal A. L. Parker (center), the sixty-five members of the faculty, thirty-seven men and twenty-eight women, started out another year of teaching. Back again this year are William Taylor (lower right), vice-principal, and Bernadine McClincy (upper right), girls' adviser.

Returning after two years' active service in the Marines is William Donner, mathematics and history.

Four teachers are new. Taking the place of Miss Carrie Lake, who is in Greece, is Mrs. Ruby Philips, former home economics teacher at the Trade school. Gilbert Brooks, former Havermale teacher, is in the Industrial Arts department. Miss Nancy Martin, a W.S.C. cadet last year, and Mrs. Hazel Campbell are in the English department.

Second row—Arthur Walther, Hazel Campbell, C. D. Babcock, Philip Baird, Nancy Martin, E. E. McElvain, Martha Graham.

February 20—A Tiger photographer was roving through the halls today, bent on snapping a few odds and ends among the faculty. On the first floor he found George Palmer, English teacher just returned from war service in the U. S. Army. Providing Mr. Palmer with bodyguards in the form of Phil Baird and "Squinty" Hunter, the lensman got that picture. On the top floor he ran into a bevy of stalwart faculty members talking and gesticulating—Alonzo Woolard, Louis Livingston, Bill Anderson, Art Frey and Gene Archer. He photographed these while Track Coach Frey was putting over a kittenish move. At the end of the day the shutter-snapper caught Katherine Hunt, Blanche Smith, H. P. Aldrich, Henry Koslowsky (cadet) and Mrs. Vecchio checking over their mail.

February 24—The auditorium was packed today by students watching their mamas and papas put on the annual Minstrel show. The name this year was "The Telethon." The comedy fireman's act (top) by Bob Buechel, Ray Beil, John Domit, and Stanly Emmerton went over well with the students. The Chorus put on such popular numbers as "There's No Business Like Show Business" and "Strolling Through The Park One Day." "I'm an Indian Too" (bottom) was a favorite specialty act. It was done by Evelyn Holdsworth, Fred Tucker, Karl Krause, Ross Jensen, George Mazna, and Dwight Thomas.

Dear Bill,

Hi! I read clear through this book before I realized that it was a letter. Well, it's been a long time, eh? Where have you been and what have you been doing all this year? Time surely flys in this world, doesn't it?

I'll tell you what I've been doing. Spending a lot of time, as usual, wrecking cars. I have one of the most wrecked cars around. You'll have to come to see it sometime. Maybe you and I can go for a ride - ok? Then we'll see if we can't get a grand person. Here's wishing you much success and luck and a happiness in your future.

Good luck!

Margie

P.S. I hope you can read this. Excuse my writing. Bill, I think you make a mistake in this friendship again before you make another.

To a fellow skier from another one. Best of luck and lots of fun for the future.

P.S. — Hi — I never apologized (ann tell me how to spell a ——) for cutting your hair off. But after looking at the back of your cute little head I see no harm was done. By the way you can blow the best smoke rings of anyone I know. I forget you were moving away so just want to wish youse all the success you deserve at the new school, town, with all your new girl friends. Keep your hands off ice cream bars that you just feel like taking. I still think you should have borrowed a nickel from me. (just kidding) Remember just a few of our swell times together. Write me when you move.
